Please read this document properly before you decide to participate in the study.

My name is OLUWASEGUN AYOMIDE EMMANUELLA, from POLITICAL SCIENCE AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS Department of Caleb University, Imota, Lagos State. The title of my Project/Dissertation is AN ANALYSIS OF THE EFFECTS OF POVERTY ON NIGERIAN NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT: A STUDY OF MAKOKO IN LAGOS STATE.

What you will be expected to do, as a participant in the study, is to give a response to items in the questionnaire that will be used to gather data to be tested for the study. Be informed that the time you will spend participating in this study will be only about ten (10) minutes.

There are no consequences in participating in the study. The potential benefits of the study include that you will be part of the persons providing initiatives for examining how poverty related factors such as educational deprivation, poor healthcare access, poor living conditions, ineffective government intervention policies, and Nigeria's overdependence on the oil sector affect poverty reduction and national development in Nigeria.

Please bear with me as there will be no incentive or compensation for participating in the study. You will not be penalized in any way if you choose not to participate. Should you decide to discontinue participating in the study after you have started, there will be no penalty or loss of benefit, for choosing not to continue to participate.

Please note that your identity will be kept confidential. Any information you give will be assigned a code number which will be kept confidential. When the study is completed and the data have been analyzed, your response sheet will later be destroyed. Your name will not be used in any report or publication. Your participation in the study is completely voluntary.

Please note that there is no conflict of interest in this study.
